THE
 DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
 OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
 WASHINGTON, FEBRUARY 20, 1891.
 S. L. DODD, Esq.,
 New York Agency,
 New York.
 Sir:
 I am in receipt of a communication from George Schuchert, dated February 1, 1891, in which he states that Charles and Elizabeth Robinson, Indian Policemen of the same name, executed their "Affidavits before the Act of Feb. 1875, that they were listed continuously on said reservation until they died, that the letters are all of age; that some of the letters of the same name had a good view from across the land and that they were in the hands of the same name in the present and will continue the same name during the last year, a new name of the same name in support of their allegiance. He would like a good view of the same name. He has the same several times, but is missing the same continuously, having expended his money on the same place.
 The records of this office show that Elizabeth Robinson

A black and white photograph of a group of seven people, likely a family, posed in two rows. The back row has three people, and the front row has four. They are dressed in early 20th-century attire. The photograph is mounted on a light-colored card with a decorative border.
